«Let's start with Comrade Stalin's famous radio speech on July 3, 1941. The clearest пример of a people of a profound mythology.

«Where enemy sets its goal: the restoration of the power of the landowners, the restoration, patriotism, the destruction of the national culture and national statehood of Russians, Ukrainians, Belarusians, Lithuanians, Letts, Estonians, Latvians, Danes, Moldavians, Georgians, Armenians, Azerbaijanis and the other peoples of the Soviet Union».

So what does Hitler want? «Restoration of nationalism or destruction of national statehood of Russians» в России?»

What can we say. Well, if..

I am addressing you, my friends. All of Russia listened with bated breath to sisters!.. К вам обращаюсь я, друзья мои!..», вся Россия слушала, затаив дыхание.

Not something else is more important than is hidden in the passage quoted above from Medvedev's "War" and indeed, by the way, a lot of obvious provocation is hidden!

But Medvedev deliberately and illegally cuts off the part of Stalin's speech cited by him. Below I will give this speech. It is necessary that our people, the Soviet people, understand the full depth of the danger that threatens our country and in panic, in complacency, carelessness, in a mood of carefree construction, which was quite understandable in the pre-war period, about the pernicious and the present time when the war has radically changed the situation. The enemy is a German and will not beg to set its goal the restoration of the power of the landowners, the restoration of fascism, the destruction of the national culture and national statehood of the Russians, Ukrainians, Belarusians, Lithuanians, Latvians, Estonians, Ukrainians, Moldavians, Georgians, Armenians, Azerbaijanis and the peoples of the Soviet Union, their transformation, their transformation into slaves of German robbers and barons. It is the question of life and death of the Soviet state, of life and death of the peoples of the USSR, of the lives of the peoples of the Soviet Union. It will be, free of fascist enslavement. ky became more antagonistic than lately and even more so by the 20th century.

Usarism is not a drop of national statehood, but a social system, a system of social — oppression and social injustice. In 1944, millions of people were still living an active life in Russia, who experienced all the horrors of this social system in their own skin, and tens of millions who had a good idea of these horrors from the stories of their elders. Some, like Stalin, speaking about the restoration of Usarism as one of their goals, were very accurately addressed his compatriots as well-founded and understandable alarm and was good for anything that Stalin preached.

Words in the restoration of the power of the landowners before the words restoration of tsarism in a country where in 1926 peasants in 1926 82% of the population, and 81% in 1941 66%, of the population, 66% of the population, the power of the landowners hit the country's most painful social point. The restoration of tsarism in Russia was tantamount to the restoration of the power of the landowners. And what this meant, their Russian no need to explain to the Russian — everyone understood everything and so.

Further, Medinsky, in the same manner, in the restoration of the destruction of national statehood only in Russia. He presumably counts on the fact that the reader of the, for example, подлога will have notice and will decide that we are nationally talking about the national statehood of only one Russian. However, after all, Stalin clearly stated that we are talking about the destruction of the national statehood, not only of Russians but also of Ukrainians, Belarusians, Lithuanians, Latvians, Estonians, Uzbeks, Tajiks, Moldovans, Georgians, etc.

As you can see, Stalin listed almost all these nationalities in the USSR, which by 1941 had all their own national union republics, thus giving them the status of national statehood. And Stalin directly warned these peoples that their pre-statehoods created by the Soviet system, was threatened by German aggression. Further, without burdening the press.

Speech by listing also a hundred of these nationalities of the USSR and did not leave, which were republics, but for pre-republican forms of republics, national regions and districts. Stalin, however, did not forget about them in the attack on the United Nations in the form of "and other free peoples of the Soviet Union to the Union".

Moreover, Stalin, unlike the Molotov and Litvinov and Medvedevs, always adequately and specifically reminded the peoples of the USSR that this was a result of the German attack. Germans were a threat not only to their statehood, but also to their national cultures, национальным культурам!

Сергей Кривош

Это ельцинско-путинский «культуртрегер» типа акса-министра «культуры» Швыдкого, который не заботится о русской и ни о какой другой национальной культуре, а Сталин — сам человек, который очень хорошо понимал значение национального культурного фактора для полноценного исторического будущего советского народа. Однако при этом, он имел в виду, что такое историческое будущее гарантировано всем народам СССР только в составе Союза Советских Социалистических Республик и при его существовании, угрозу которому создала гитлеровская агрессия.

Об этом Сталин 3 июля 1944 года и сказал, а для Мединского, историком, это — не более чем «красочная мифология».

Увы, проанализировать в кратком очерке книгу объёмом в 600 с лишком страниц невозможно, однако на одном моменте я не остановиться не могу — на том, как трактует Мединский тему предательства. Вот как он пишет, например, о бывшем белом генерале Шкуро, повешенном в 1947 году за активное сотрудничество с немцами:

«В Гражданскую бился с красными, но, видимо, крах Империи и Государя (с большой, конечно же, с большой буквы. — С.К.) совсем лишил его казака нравственных ориентиров...»

Уникальная особенность, которую Россия имеет, заключается в том, что она не может похвастаться ельцинскими 90-ми годами.

Just as it is hard for proportion and integrity to be seen, it is hard to see the Soviet people, who took the Red Banner with the insignia of symbols of labor—the hammer and sickle. But they are trying to do so for their own.

The Soviet Union disappeared a long time ago, there is neither the most thearist Central Committee in the world, nor the Central Party Apparatus and the Department of the whistle blowers are back on horseback. All with the same kind of enthusiasm they broadcast about the intrigues and intrigues. And arguing with such a definition is hopeless. The definition is because to be able to do this is not possible. And you say, "the current". They shout loudly, but they do not hear it in any way and cannot hear in principle.

state parliament in 2003, member of 2000 United Russia fraction, headed by Duma Chairman Vladimir Gurylov, submitted a proper bill to the State Duma for consideration and decision on the introduction of criminal liability for denying the victory of the USSR in the Great Patriotic War and the distortion of the sentence of the Nuremberg Tribunal. He was declaring the actions of the countries participating in the coalition criminal and publicly praising the Nazis for these crimes; the bill provides for punishment in the form of a fine of up to 500 thousand rubles or imprisonment for a term of up to 3 years or both. In the report on the bill, the author points out that it is necessary to interpret a large number of facts and to imagine what this would have turned out to be. For example, the Perm regional prosecutor's office previously recognized the slogan "Peace and the world have extremists and inciting social discord and to normal life" as a provocation. The authors of the film "Rzhev. The unknown Battle of George Zhukov" would definitely say that the tank was not approached, and the law was not approved, and the law was not approved.

he does not quote a single quotation from his specialism articles. Moreover, the name of Аня Хакон is completely absent from the referenced bibliography given at the end of the book. And the rest of the book is written in a rough, rather same old, tired, not to mention that it reads like a printed news article on the pages of various sites, not the frankly boorish tone of the essay.

That is, certain suspicions do arise immediately. And when reading the book, they only intensified. It does not at all resemble either the aforementioned Е. Вектор or Г. Ревтов, or the collection of falsifications of history published back in 1948. You may also recall the book by А. Книгу Власти и войны. А. Вектор for Fascism. All these books were published in the Soviet Union, and therefore they had all the shortcomings of the political literature of that time. However, at the same time, they had all the advantages of the old school of book publishing: the harmony of their concept, the consistency of presentation, the logic. The book by Вектор is a strict, logical pile of information, logically unrelated to each other, but often not related to the topics. Why mention the Spanish Civil War when it should become the subject of a separate fundamental study, and not a pre-digesting episode in a book about the Great Patriotic War? But since мы гаились. Но to confirm this assumption, we will nevertheless mention to call Vladimir Medinsky the author of the Book. Although there is no actual book as such, there are 656 individual pages and "656 отдельных листов" as they say on the Web today. we are trying to find out exactly what the Soviet Union supplied to Hitler.

Но we take a memorandum prepared in February 1940 by Dr. Julius Schürer, an important economic expert at the German Foreign Office, which provides figures for the supply of raw materials from the USSR to Germany planned for the first year of the first year of the Soviet-German trade agreement to item 2 of the memorandum. It says: 1,000,000 tons of grain and legumes; 500,000 tons of oil; 100,000 tons of cotton; 500,000 tons of rubber; 100,000 tons of chrome; 500,000 tons of copper; 300,000 tons of iron; 24 tons of platinum; "For some reason I don't see pig bristles, свиной although I admit that somewhere it was mentioned, it just didn't matter to Dr. Schürer. Of course, not everything went so smoothly. In 1941 and 1942 a new trade agreement was signed. As a result, from December 1939 to the end of May 1941, Germany received 1,000,000 tons of oil products, 1,600,000 tons of grain,

Our Prime Minister has met today and agreed to recognize that the question of Anglo-German relations is of primary importance for both countries and for Europe. It has the first priority for both countries and for Europe.

The activity of war correspondents during the war years is a complex and controversial issue. On the one hand, they must reflect the events as accurately as possible, on the other (and it is not a military time) they are simply obliged to introduce propaganda sentiment into the reports. Pokryshkin categorically refused to transfer to the Yak, which, generally considered inferior.

On the issue of paying for borrowed supplies, Mr. Medinsky also resorts to foreign lies. First of all, all weapons and military materials that died and were used up during the war were not subject to payment. At the end of hostilities, it was supposed to return the remaining weapons, which, by the way, was done by the Germans, as it is fashionable to say today and used (the same Studebakers) could be left with a subsequent payment, and for this the United States provided interest-free loans. A sum of $1.3 billion dollars it was required to pay only about 800 million dollars. But Stalin wanted smarter to keep the equipment. Дал. Medinsky accuses the West of интересные helping the USSR in the restoration of the national economy after the war, while in reality the Soviet Union not only refused to participate in the Marshall Plan itself but also forced the countries of Eastern Europe to do the same. .. но в то время, the Soviet Union to buy out of Евро-Германия industrial equipment worth more than all the funds allocated under the Marshall Plan. Moreover, the Allies helped to remove a number of industrial enterprises from the territory, for example, the famous ball bearing factory from Schweinfurt, the Daimler-Benz aircraft engine factory from Obrigheim, the Deschimag shipyard from Bremen, in exchange the Soviet Union offered to supply food for the German people. Of course, did anyone think about doing this? The population with no language skills into no, разумеется, даже и не подумал это делать. Железный занавес с лязгом перерубил Европу надвое.

When reports that Winston Churchill stole the term from Goebbels, it was, in fact, the opposite of much earlier. It first appeared in H.G. Wells's novel The Food of the Gods in 1904. «В 1904 году» although the greatest science fiction writer used it in the most literal sense of the word. In 1908 a. It was used, but, already in the political aspect, by the Russian philosopher Vladimir Baranov. Rosa Luxemburg (Prime Minister Georges Clemenceau) was next. And in 1920, the Englishman E. H. Snowden, describing a trip to Soviet Russia, stated with utmost clarity, «At least we found ourselves behind the Iron Curtain. So neither Goebbels nor Churchill said anything. Реббелс, Уэллс, and, of course, Mr. Medvedev did not deny, but the people please me once again cheating on Sir Winston» (p. 446). «Уэллс, the British Prime Minister, as it should be; was put, on the Russian translation table of the notable speeches of his enemies, is suspect that Churchill simply, progressively, processed some of their ideas and перерабатывал некоторые их идеи».

In general, one can find fault with this work endlessly. For example, the chapter on losses proudly describes how the Red Army lost only 5,500 men during the Kiev Offensive in 1943. And even when it comes to the battles at the Dnieper bridgehead, which cost a brute Букринском плацдарме, обошедшиеся в четверть a million people. This is a myth. And the battles have been fought. There was, что 600,000. We remember that the United States lost 400,000 soldiers in World War II when you can write around and read 100,000. Of так да 100,000. Well, and so on. Actually, V. Medin'sky himself speaks of this in a letter to MacSporin, who criticized his book. By You naively believe that facts in history are the main thing. Open your eyes. One has been paying attention to them for a long time. The main thing is their interpretation, and that of the press and propaganda." та just nothing new.

And one more sad moment. If you look at the first volume of the publication "The Great Patriotic War of 1941-1945" released by the Ministry of Defense in 2001, by 2011 with a significant number of pieces of the book "War" inserted, they are using a corrupt version. For example, page 781 of the 1981 edition is a montage from pages 18 and 19 of the book "War", and so on. Only now it is obvious, clearly and frankly false propaganda turned into official history in official history.

What is the result? We have to state with regret that the book by V. Medin'sky "War" is 650 pages of blatant lies, under a shuffler and a fake. And it's not the least. It's a swamp of but for typhoid lice, it will finish with one more quote from another book "Memoirs of Leon. Воспо- Dagnelle, Division Commander, командира дивизии atrocities of the Red Army. Among other things, according to Beevor's calculations, Soviet soldiers raped 2 million German women between the ages of 16 and 60. In Berlin alone, up to 130,000 German women were raped, 10,000 of them committed suicide.¹

From the point of view of history, the book can be evaluated in different ways, but from the point of view of propaganda, it is good. Russian soldiers in Beevor are described by me: only two adjectives "dumb" and "unkempt". And it turns out that the Red Army had heavy sky losses because they violently made Russians "knocked on mines and shells with hand objects," and the mines exploded. For what they propose the Soviet soldiers hit the mines is not explained. I asked the military, but none of them knew anything about "driving" ("живание").

But atrocities do not bother anyone, when, as history says, is being created. There was a uproar around the book almost as much as around Harry Potter.

Historian Frank McLynn wrote that the book immediately renders all previous research on the subject obsolete.²

but they write in Ukraine, despite the fact that to the Ukrainians themselves are also accused of participating in the same monstrous sexual orgies.

Movies are not! In 1992, in the Berlin International Film Festival about 10 million women were raped by 1945 German soldiers in Poland and Germany in 1945. Movie evidence is not provided, it is a fiction.

But to believe the testimonies, immediately after the war soldiers shot girls to avoid being raped and killed. Then, however, it is not clear how they could do that, to testify to something... But this is already a question for the authors of the film. This is a documentary.

And in the same 1992, the feature film "The 1942 Massacre in Warsaw" by Michał Żebrowski, they are in the "Mistake of the Holocaust".

But the journalist and Olga Baco published the book "The Holocaust: The Story of 200 Women Who Were Raped by the Germans in 1945". The Center for Holocaust Research at the University of Oxford.

But the women are not only the basis for the book, but also the basis for the film. Their testimonies are the basis for the book. Their testimonies are the basis for the film. Their testimonies are the basis for the film. Their testimonies are the basis for the film.

Была ли демонизация врага в пропаганде французов и англосаксов? Похоже, что да, но то же слабее. В результате немцы оставили вот такие, например, воспоминания: «Русские вели себя как дикие животные. Переходя от фермы на ферму, они все пожирали на своем пути. Everything went into a horn. Flour, ham, canned food, everything went into a horn. Products were dragged out the cellar and scattered around the yard. When the sun began to bake, spring came, they began to припекать, and the smell of decaying spring reeked off the farm. westward German refugees; they did things that had not been seen in Europe since the invasion of the Mongols in the Middle Ages. Back then — most of whom were peasants or craftsmans employed in various occupations and thus exempted from military service, usually were simply killed on the spot. Women who resisted being raped had their throats slit on the spot. After gang rape women were killed. Many women and girls were raped solo. Many times that they died from it alone. Женщин убивали. Многие женщин и девочек насиловали по столько раз, что они от одного этого погибали.

Sometimes Soviet tank columns simply dashed the escaping refugees with caterpillars. When units of the Soviet Army occupied the settlements of East Prussia, they began such a bestial, bestial orgy of torture, rape and murder that it is not possible to describe it in full in this article. material force. Mao is absolutely correct in saying this. At the end of the war, the masses were seized by the idea that German women from 15 to 60 years old were the victor's. The legitimate prey. Two weeks later, the soldiers and officers cooled off. The barbaries ceased.

solutions to them. Any myth is always constructed from facts. It is how he lives among the people on the territory who possess the attitude towards the past that determines the collective historical memory. My myth is a matrix. All the new knowledge we receive is usually superimposed on this matrix myth. They shared it here.

World with Hitler's Death For millions of Baltic and Polish. The epidemic known how to fight. Filled up the trenches with the corpses of their own soldiers... But people did not want to fight. All the stories about the division were invented by Stalin's propaganda. Only 10% of the female population was raped.

German. What kind of myth. Думаю, что ourselves based. I think that it may be similar, perhaps at the same time, not like the myth of the Soviet War.

There is no need today to hide from ourselves, pages that do not correspond to official Soviet history. Our history is not about the state and not about a people.

Medinsky but about the people. We did not go to avenge. We did not set up tables in the God's house. Like the Nazis, did not stay in the German. We saw the Poles and wiped Berlin and Dresden off the face of the Earth. They did dozens.

But was because of a time of mass murder, the realization of the best qualities of our multi-national people. Stalinist propaganda repeatedly distorted events, created a

But the answer is simple. The revision of the the results of the Second World War is nothing more or less than part of a larger plan to secure our space and territories of the Russian Empire, в
down there is a Masonic conspiracy in this. Все Everything will happen peacefully, officially, меand within the framework of international law"1.

Here it is, as it has come out of the West. We have to talk about the crimes of the Red Army. One of the points here is not at all that some persons committed actual crimes. And not that the Soviet Union, united Germany is slowly but surely disintegrating, from its knees. Not at all! The thing is that the Soviet Union wants to chop off part of the territory of the Russian Russia or not.

“Here the main thing is that the Soviet Union

the plan is.

Here it is, the point of divergence. Medunsky the world only sleeps and sees how to всех истребительных и быстро withdrawn from the "resources".

But for now, as I mostly you might think that these resources and territories at the moment have at least some realtion to us. On the other hand, one might think we have something to do with them!

Secondly, I do not share the phantoms that my friend and student Dmitry Verkhovtsov called "defensive consciousness".

And I have the point of view that during the Second World War absolutely everywhere was a war on each other. And I think there is a good opportunity to conduct very effective propaganda without telling ourselves and everyone around us nice stories about the good we all were, how much we differed from the better than everyone else. Medinsky

Could I have said that the Allies were no better, he would have mentioned all the same atrocities and bombings. But after the war in Britain I met at the head of the bomber force, the авиации memorable Sir Arthur Travis Harris; Sir Basil Bagnall was the only one of the major English military leaders of World War II who did not go to the great war, a member of the upper house of Parliament. In 1948, he was forced to leave for good for South Africa, where he died and forgotten by everyone, in 1984 only.

In 1992 the veteran organization Bomb Bomber

Medinsky and the Nazi: Creation of the monument by a accomplice?

Harris Trust, despite the protests of Germany and the British and themselves, erected a monument to Hitler in London. The inscription was installed, but on the monument all the time there are inscriptions. He is especially not a particularly popular figure. It was necessary to establish a kind of police post near the monument so that it would not be damaged by vandals, moreover.

The British themselves: Why? Because Harris went down in history as the ideologist of "strategic bombing" of German cities. As the organizer of the physical destruction and depopulation of the peaceful civilian population, the destruction of the historical and cultural heritage of Germany.

Very many in Germany and France... A train travels through France, and on the sides are old towns with windows of the 13th and 16th centuries, with an extraordinary look. But as soon as you cross the German border, the appearance of the cities changes dramatically, and immediately a complete remake begins... The reason is simple: the war target in Germany has been completely bombed out of existence.

Discussing such historical events and events and comparing them with war crimes on the Eastern Front really would become a new world in the discussion of the responsibility in the Second World War. Such a step, Medinsky just made.
